January WEDNESDAY 1 1908

January THURSDAY 2 1908

January FRIDAY 3 1908

1912 February 1

Mrs Cotton (and a woman) came up to ask us on a hay ride tonight.

G (who returned last night) came up, while Babe & O were at Hollises'.

Took Babe to stay all night at Hollises', and went on hay ride – around "scenic drive"; from 11:30 to 1:30 – with Laura Cotton, her mother, Jonathan & Stella & Laura's musicians. Sea beautiful, but stop at Mrs. Yada's house disagreeable. Bed at 2.

2

Went after Babe, who had "gone to school" with Buzzie Hollis.

Stopped at Cottons to say goodbye to Laura, & returned for late breakfast.

Mission Point at 4 with George, Tayo, Babe & O, for abalones.

I killed a devil fish.

George to dinner & evening.

January SATURDAY 4 1908

January SUNDAY 5 1908

February 3

George to abalone breakfast. Mrs Hollis cut my hair, George shaved my neck, & I feel lots better!

O to Monterey with Hollises, who stayed to dinner on their returns, & took Babe for the night, while O & I went to "The Jack Tar".

Bob wrote, asking to come for a visit.

4

Babe fell off a coaster & hurt her eye. Not serious, but ugly looking on the dear little face.

5

Babe's eye seems more swollen & purple than it looked yesterday. Went with her to Dr Lewis, but nobody at home.

6

Helped O clean house all day.

January MONDAY 6 1908

January TUESDAY 7 1908

February 7

Lunch at Philip Wilsons.
Mrs. Foster thanks Cathleen & Houlihan too serious (Why not?!) and asked me to write a farce to play the same evening.
Drs; Beach Johnsons.

8

Banged my left elbow excruciatingly hard on the piazza railing.
Worked all day on "The Playwright".
George spent the evening.

9

Wrote all day day.
George to dinner & stayed the evening

10

Discord with O.
Very nervous & exhausted.
Vaschel's, Turner's, Hollis', Foster's, George's.

January WEDNESDAY 8 1908

January THURSDAY 9 1908

February 11

Still very nervous & more exhausted.
Walked to the beach with O & Hollis children. Wonderful grey lava formation washed clean by the sea. Channels, pools etc.
Hollises to dinner.

Felt a little stronger, but did no work except a little typing & letter writing and "manual labor."
George killed some rabbits, & Shipley made a huge meat-pie for dinner, which we glutted on.

13

Mrs Hollis & Jonathan & Stella to dinner.
"The Philip Wilsons" called, and I took the 3 ladies home. The Wilsons were still here when I returned.
Read 2½ acts of the farce to them

January FRIDAY 10 1908

January SATURDAY 11 1908

February 14

Looking up cast for St. Patrick's Day performance.
Mrs Hollis to dinner.

15

Mrs. Hollis made my toga for the Masquerade. Opal & Babe had supper at her house, while I went to Rochels, Mrs Fosters, Mrs Bradners.

16

Very tired. Did no work.
Coopers called.
George helped me eat a large whipped-cream cake.

17

Manganta Club Masquerade Ball. Opal & Ruth as the Princes in the Tower (Allen having held up the trunks till they shrank to 'nothing!'); Babe as Queen Isabel (entirely her own idea); & I as a Roman. ("What Greek do you represent?" they asked!)

January SUNDAY 12 1908

January MONDAY 13 1908

17

Emmas king at 10. Opal won the ladies' prize (hand mirror) and Hand the gentlemen's. Babe had a very joyous time, which she later to end. We stayed there, till nearly one o'clock.

18

Babe sick — same trouble as before. O calls it biliousness.

19

Bob arrived on the 7 stage.

20

Read The Spotlight to the cast, etc. (Rochell, Cooper, Mrs. Foster, Gladys Shumacher, Opal — and Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Shumacher, Mrs Hand, Bob) George killed 5 rabbits, & we had a fine large stew for dinner, after which O "danced and pleased" in her masquerade costume. Babe almost well.

January TUESDAY 14 1908

January WEDNESDAY 15 1908

February 21

We took Bob to Georges, Vachels, Doctors. Sales went to Mrs. Foster's to arrange for Roc. affair, and to Jonathans to see the absurd letters Mary Austin wrote about Sidis. It seems she wrote, too, to Jonathan, last summer, two letters "exposing" me to the Council! But I wouldn't read them, and only just now told me of them. I suppose she meant to "spare" me the awful result of the reading of the letters to the Council — and didn't want to get mixed up in a row herself! Having the whole correspondence relative to Sidis, (her letters & copies of mine) I could have proved my side of it very easily. Never does Mary Austin associate with me — the vain, treacherous beast.

Ox Bob sat up till 2 a. m. talking.

February 22

Babe has caught a bad cold.
George to dinner, after which he went to his house & spent the evening.

23

Jonathan & Stella to dinner. Showed J. the Austin correspondence, which cleared it up for her, anyway.
A & C. card party. Didn't want to play, but had to fill up a table — and came second for the prize.
Danced with Miss Badger, Bob, Opal and Mrs. Johnson.
Babe stayed the night at Hollises'.

24

and came home alone in the morning.
O & Bob are very fond of each other.
Read Anna Pavlowna & love scene from Francesca da R. to Bob.

January SATURDAY 18 1908

January SUNDAY 19 1908

February 25

Yankee Point. Frank Purkerson
Clay McGreene & his wife & niece and O & Bob; & George & Babe
and I came a bee line.
We had delicious broiled lamb chops.
Returned about 4 o'clock.
Gid drive round H L Wilson's house
& Dragon House on the way back.
Bob read O. Henry. Me Thunk along.

26

Newberry's with Bob & O.
Burglaffs on way back, & Mrs Hall's'
Turners & George spent the evening
We had tamales & coffee. George sang the Abalone Song, Hollaway's Fancy
Farm, The Whale.
Read Quarrel Scene & Turner, who had consented to play Cassius & He balked on hearing it, saying I was too bad — and he'd rather have played William Jones in the Farce.
So I'll change to-per.

January MONDAY 20 1908

January TUESDAY 21 1908

February 27

Bob went out in the woods & wrote on a story most of the day.

George & Jimmy. Illuminating & (to Bob) electrifying remarks on love by him.

Bob read "The Shirkers" aloud.

Dined with O.

28

O & Bob & Babe went down to watch George & Turner get abalones. & went later, stopping at Newbury's on the way.

Returning, we dropped in at H L Wilson's who was drunk.

He opened a bottle of champagne for us & George got a bit too much rye, also.

January THURSDAY 23 1908

February 29

Abalone for breakfast.

George ate with us, & after we went down to help him pack a trunk & send it to Carrie.

Read "The Spotlight" to Newberry, Turner, & Helen Cooke.

Six women (inc. Cora Mel Patten) came to hear it — summoned — and went away without hearing it.

George to dinner.

Bob. Opal, & I to hear reading (by Cora Mel Patten) of Percy's "Tomorrow" at the Inn.

Opal had her hair done up and looked more conventionally beautiful than I've ever seen her.

George stayed while we were at the Inn to guard Bobs from the demons of loneliness.

George said goodbye for a week, as he goes to S.F. in the morning.

January SATURDAY 25 1908

1912. March 1

Helen Cooke's, Newberry's, Hanson's, Foster's, Jonathan's, Doctor's.

Jonathan shows the white feather, damn her. She'll probably lose the game for us by her cowardice. Says she may not be able to be here on the 29th for the Council meeting!! Shipley spent the evening

Mrs Hall's called.

Bob & O went to see Miss Morgan's pictures Bob having postponed her departure for a few days.

Bob got a letter calling her home at once to rehearsal. We talked the whole evening.

Bob left on the early auto.

~~Straightened out Blatchley's~~ Mrs. A took ~~it to~~ Mrs Gurley's type.

January MONDAY 27 1908

where I joined them for supper.
Met Walter Hampden & his wife at the Williams.

4

Babe on a horse for the first time alone. She rode it around the yard & was very happy & proud.
Reading rehearsal of Julius Caesar scene, for which Hopper came up.

5

Rehearsal of The Spotlight put off till tomorrow, as parts not typed. Stopped at Turners, Vachels, Newberry's — to let them know — and at each place was told what the "foundling" Egyptian play left on Helen Parker's doorstep.
Newberry, Vachel & I went to Dr. Lewis's & got the Cross & went to H. L. Wilson's & read Act I.

January TUESDAY 28 1908

January WEDNESDAY 29 1908

5

Newberry knows more than he pretends. Read the play all through to myself in the evening. It's fine. Curious resemblances to Pharaoh.

Mrs [redacted] Shumacher threw up their parts, because their boy is sick, & Gladys won't likely play.

6

Turner came up & gave in his part. Bechdolt refused Cassius. Helen Corke goes to N.Y. on Saturday, & gave up her part. Talk with Jonathan about F.T., Jonathan thought I wrote The Toad! She noticed [redacted] a resemblance to Montezuma — says whoever wrote The Toad had seen Pharaoh & Montezuma. Certainly the fight on the stairs is taken from Monte, but it doesn't matter except that I couldn't play a scene like that in

January FRIDAY 31 1908

6

My own play (as Holme said & I said it!) I can't play it in anyone else's play!
Walter Hampden & two more.
& Mrs Williams spent the evening.

7

Afternoon and evening at Newberry's, on F.T. work. Newbery knows The Toad better than I do, tho' he's only read 1 act! There's some queer development planned.

8

Full rehearsal of The Spotlight & the Sleepwalking scene. End of Arsenal Scene.
Turner's, Jonathan's, Hallis'.
George came back from S.F.

9

George came up for breakfast, & we had crab à la Newberg.

February SATURDAY 1 1908

February SUNDAY 2 1908

9

~~Headed~~ & the frame work, & probably Newbury, Turner, Holme, Mrs Locke, had more or less to do with it.

Mrs. Williams says it was a vile trick to write an Egyptian play after mine was submitted - simply to compete with my costumes &c. [redacted] (besides possibly stealing ideas)

Took some cast to Jonathan.

Newbury's, when I learned that Helen Locke would not be back East in the play.

Miss Farrington's, Mrs. Stevens, Miss Neary's, Mrs. Johnson's — hunting cast.

Also Maude Lyons's, who gave me a pound of coffee (return for the tea I gave her last year!)

Also Rachel's, Georges, Mrs Williams.

& Mrs Williams went to Peters Christmas eve.

February MONDAY 3 1908

February TUESDAY 4 1908

March 10

At George's I talked with Turner a lot about the Cookes.

Rehearsal of J. Carson here.

Overstreet says Wickham wrote The Toad with Beckhardt. He & Cooper & Shipley consider it a low trick.

Maudie Mary, Mrs. Hollis, Ruth, Shipley, Cooper & his mother to supper.

11

George to breakfast of chicken pie, for which he furnished the chickens.

Mrs. Foster came to rehearsal and said we'd better give up the performance, as she may be called away any moment.

Damn & combat!
Dr Lane & Helen Parker indignant.

13

Dr Lane, Helen Parker & I (maj. of Play Com) waited on Newberry & got raking called off.
Mrs. Foster's — good talk about Toad stool.
Newberry came in — disgruntled & ma.
Newberry & I to Helen Parker to send for Young.

14

Shipley dressmaking for O.

15

Caught a damn cold. ✗

17

Got rid of the cold, but sore throat still hangs on.
I hate to work when I'm sick.

18

George returned from S. F.

February FRIDAY 7 1908

February SATURDAY 8 1908

March 19

George to dinner.
Felt too sick to work all day, & stopped.

20

Ø not very well? 'Nother polyps?

21-27

Generally busy from breakfast to bedtime, on Montezuma revision for F.T, and F.T. work of various kinds.

28

Formal meeting of the Play Committee at Helen Parkes' house. The committee (Sterling, Lane, Parkes — Young absent & Ø not voting) unanimously decided Montezuma was best, of all plays submitted, for the annual production; Pharaoh second; The Toad third; Rummymede fourth; Sherwood fifth, etc. Several pages of the committee's report dealt with the evident plagiarisms of The Toad from Pharaoh

February SUNDAY 9 1908

February MONDAY 10 1908

28

and Montezuma, tho these were not considered in judging the Toad.

29

Regular meeting of the Council. Sterling (chairman of Committee) read the report (immediately after election of Dr. Smiley to fill Behrdolt's place). Before voting on the plays, the Council asked to hear the first 3 read: Montezuma, Pharaoh, The Toad. As Pharaoh is shorter than Montezuma I was asked to read it in place of that, as much of the evening had passed in business. So I read Pharaoh (Mrs. Foster, Dr. Lane, Dr. Smiley, Helen Parkes, Opal Hann, Sterling, Beck, Reardon, Newberry, Wallace and Miss Morgan), omitting Prologue, Pharaoh's scene of Scene I, Act II, and Epilogue. Adjourned to meet at Act Craft tomorrow night for reading of Montezuma & The Toad to the Society.

February TUESDAY 11 1908

February WEDNESDAY 12 1908

March 30

Newberry called meeting to order at 8 o'clock, introduced Mrs. Newberry as "the author of The Toad."

Mrs. N. said she wasn't "accustomed to being called a thief," and declared she had never seen or heard either Ph. or M., nor heard them discussed — a lie so palpable that it would make Andrew Stewart laugh.

Newberry then began to read the Toad. I rose to object, as Montezuma had first choice, & was told I was "out of order!" I asked why, & Newberry replied: "Tonight I read The Toad." He read it — and eight people (out of about 50) went to bed.

Then he called for — Pharaoh! I objected, having read that the night before. Newberry began to act like a maniac. Sterling got up & told him he was using his office — Pres. & stampeded the meeting in his own favor, and insisted on his vacating the chair. He refused. S. moved to adjourn. Motion carried, and Council adjourned. Newberry then called the Mayor muting to order, and asked for Pharaoh as a favor. Of course I had to read it.

February THURSDAY 13 1908

That done, Maude Lyons made herself disagreeable, Bradley rose & said there were "no gods in Egypt" (!), Sterling withdrew the plagiarism charges, not wishing to urge them after the author of the book was known, and known to be a woman (and wife of the Pres. of the Society); & rose & said that the same reason for the Committee's charge of plagiarism was the fact that an Egyptian play had been written to compete with an Egyptian play already submitted, whereupon Newberry declared that The Trial had only been begun on my telling Mr. Lacy I was not going to Church. Oh! (a deliberate falsehood). I rose again, declared I had never said anything of the kind, and that there was evidently a misunderstanding. Mrs. Cooke made an oily speech, and the thing was over. Never have I seen such disgusting sentimentality, malignancy, lying, venomousness, and unfairness in one evening.

February SATURDAY 15 1908

February SUNDAY 16 1908

30

February TUESDAY 18 1908

31

Knowing that seven of the Council would vote for Antigonish, and having only six trades, Newbery went to San Francisco, having orders for none of his henchmen or Morgan the Henchwoman to attend the meeting. This left us without a quorum, and the whole thing is at a standstill.

February WEDNESDAY 19 1908

February THURSDAY 20 1908

1912 April 1

Met again, but no quorum.

February SATURDAY 22 1908

April 2

Still no quorum - and of course won't be. We've done our duty, now, and must simply wait.

Petition started by Mrs Foster to have Secretary call special Meeting of Society to hear Montezuma.

February SUNDAY 23 1908

February MONDAY 24 1908

April 3

1 column in Examiner (by Newberry, of course) declaring that Heney, & the plaga charges disproved (!) "must feel like a fly caught in the ointment and ruthlessly squashed." "Sterling side-tracked, crawfished, etc."

"Audience sat aghast through the trial, and yawned through Pharaoh."

If Newberry gets too anxious, will send the deadly parallel & the papers — and they can't be disproved. He's making a great mistake to take advantage of our generosity to his wife.

February TUESDAY 25 1908

February WEDNESDAY 26 1908

April 4

Turner came up for a moment. He seems to be with us, but Time will tell.

5

Newberry's attorneys ask for plagiarism charges — and are refused.

6

Turner & Shipley to dinner, also George.
We played poker all evening.
George got drunk.
Check for Silent Veto from Brokaw
Meeting of the "solid 7" at Mrs Foster's to decide what answer to make to Newberry's letter.
Dr Lane came up on F.T. business in a.m.

February THURSDAY 27 1908

February FRIDAY 28 1908

April 8

Toys cut the big tree, and it fell on a fine large green one, making that green one look as if a mammoth had eaten the top of it. Also it knocked 2 others into fine wood.
Rained a good bit.
Turner, Shipley & George to dinner
Turner is gone.
George says he will play, too. (Flantazia)
Raining too much for Shipley to go home
so she stayed again all night.
Played poker again
Opal lunched at the Inn.
Babe ran away to the Hollises.

March SUNDAY 1 1908

April 9

Opal & Shipley (& Bob) to breakfast with George & Turner. Went home later. George drunk again, & Dad & I had a few things to say to each other when we returned. I got very much roused up; I also. It can't last much longer. Either she changes her habits, or we sell the house and leave Camel, or she packs out and leaves by herself.

March MONDAY 2 1908

March TUESDAY 3 1908

April 10

Still raining

11

Ma writes she may be able to sell ranch for $12000!
Rain, rain, rain.
Solid 7 met at Mrs Foster's in evening.

12

Council met informally. All there but Wallace & MacDougall. Decided to end the fight by putting on both plays. Regular meeting called, & the compromise put through unanimously in regular order. I insisted on choice of dates and got it, tho I wanted choice of 4th & Saturday and had to choose between 3rd & 4th of July, as Pageant held Saturday. Pres H had to have Montezuma before the Toad, & took 3rd.

March WEDNESDAY 4 1908

March THURSDAY 5 1908

April 13

George made up with Bechdolts!
Pleasant talk with the Drs.
Special meeting of Society called by request of required 6 members, by the Secretary — & hear Montezuma
on Monday eve. W.

14

George came up & said Devendorf joke fuming, & begged him to get me to withdraw Montezuma
as he "knew 2 plays would divide our energies and both be failures."
I told him Newbery could withdraw
Hood, Pageant & anything else, but Montezuma was going on, and if we couldn't get quitclaim he would go on at Del Monte ..
I went up the San Jose Canyon with Babe, with Hollis & Jonathan Stella.

March SUNDAY 8 1908

March MONDAY 9 1908

April 16

Met Miss Seay & Helen Parkes as they were going to Mrs Cotton's, & went with them. Home at home, & we sat in the garden & talked Montezuma for an hour.

17

Stella & Jonathan to dinner, after which we worked on Montezuma cast.

18

Cutting wood

19

Shirley made a dress for Babe & had dinner

20

Hauled 12 loads of wood (big 2 horse wagon), half of which I hoodoo & all of which I unloaded — Also 3 loads of brush. Hence, very tired.

March TUESDAY 10 1908

March WEDNESDAY 11 1908

April 21

Chicken pie. Farmers & Sterling to dinner.

22

Comical meeting at Mrs. Fosters. Newberry read petition from 28 of Society asking for meeting for them to decide on play, as Devendorf wouldn't hear of 2 plays.

Dr. Lane told Newberry he had't done a straight thing since March 29, & ought to be impeached.

Mrs Foster, Jonathan, Opal & I each gave a dig & George said we might as well try to ~~[illegible]~~ (I forget what) as get justice from the Company - "they're nothing but a lot of puppets in their hands (He meant puppets, of course, but didn't matter.)

Beck, Morgan, Reardon, Newberry left the meeting.

March THURSDAY 12 1908

March FRIDAY 13 1908

April 23

after a talk with Turner & George, I decided to withdraw Montezuma tomorrow night.

24

Meeting of F.T. Society.
Constitution read, & illegality of Society choosing play made evident. Beckhold - hating them, but being unable to help his crankiness — stirred up more trouble, saying Council had already violated Constit. in electing 2 plays.
Turner suggested throwing out the Council & electing a new one. (traitor, & thought him). More discussion, and at last Mrs. Hand asked if they were ready for the question (for the Society to decide on the play! against the Constitution!) Then I asked if the founder of the F.T. might say something, & was given the floor.

March SATURDAY 14 1908

March SUNDAY 15 1908

24

"I've given my heart's-blood for the Forest Theater, and I won't see the members of the Society overturn the organization of the Theater I love. I withdraw Nominations."

And out I went.

after thing going "Only honorable thing he could do" said the vicious Mrs. Hand.

"Why was it the only honorable thing he could do?" asked Dr. Smiley.

Hilliard said — "After Mr. Herron's splendid, generous action ——

Dr. Smiley, Dr Lane, Opel, Mrs Foster left. I went home, thinking I'd go there; but I went down to Mrs Foster's when I came later, worried about me.

Jonathan, as Secretary, stayed till the end.

Turner sensationally moved that they throw out the Council-elect & have a new one pledged to vote for The Toad.

They threw out the Council & began nominating for new ones. Turner,

24

Cooper, Hilliard, Mason, Newberry (all but one honest!) — and then reconsidered & left old Council to select play according to Constitution.

Maude Lyons spoke of her founding of the Theater.

Newberry spoke of the beauty of Carmel.

Adjourned.

Mrs. Hand said to Jonathan: I want to explain what I meant about my Hero. Because of the plagiarism charges, it was the only honorable thing he could do. He has lived here long enough to know that he must stand on his own merits. "If he had lived here ten years, he wouldn't stand on his merits with you," said J.

March WEDNESDAY 18 1908

March THURSDAY 19 1908

April 25

Saw Turner, Jonathan, Drs. & Mrs. Foster. We resign (the 7) tomorrow. Dr Smiley says Mrs Coke's statement that she "always had thought Henri had written The Toad & a part of it"; and Jonathan's information that Studs "a cheap rehash of Montag. & Ph." proved the plag. charges not unfounded! Excellent point.

26

Council meeting at Carnal Hall ~~to vote~~ for play. Newberry nobly declined to vote (no other play being in question!) & of the 9 cast, 3 were for Toad & 6 blank. Newberry ruled Toad not chosen. "Any more business?" he asked; & Jonathan read our resignations one by one.

Interesting gilding of Newberry which he smoothed over very plausibly. Morgan & the minutes!

Mrs. Foster's & then home — done with it!

March SATURDAY 21 1908

March SUNDAY 22 1908

March MONDAY 23 1908

April 27

29

Cut Maude Lyons on Ocean Ave.

30

Turner came in (before I was dressed) to ask if I'd play "Toad". He said he'd not play Ashmores unless they were going to ask me to play — provided I'd play it asked — & told him I abandoned. Explained Wilson on main play committee at Xmas voting. They've bought Beckett by giving Mrs B the part of Susan.

March WEDNESDAY 25 1908

1912 May 1

Beach suffer: 4 Hollises, Mrs. Johnson, Jonathan & Stella, 3 Herons. Stayed from 5 to 8, tho' it was rather cold & deadly windy, but the roast chicken & coffee were good.

2

Brewster to clean house: row with the Jap in consequence, & Tojo works for us no more. Fool that he was, to get mad. He was 3 weeks behind his work, and should have been grateful to be let off from some of it.

3

Coopers, to arrange beach supper for next Friday. They are not going to buy here, because of F. T. villainy. Ha! ha! Mr. Dendorf!

March MONDAY 30 1908

May 16

Wrote a birthday letter to Una; worked some hours in the hot sun with George in the woods; & went down to Aldebaran for supper. 4 Huntemanns George, 3 Turners, 3 Us. Turner acted like a pessimistic boor — queer combination, but true, any hour.

18

George brought up Albert Bender and Goodwin. They had tea & spent the whole afternoon. Likeable fellow, Bender. We proposed getting up an anthology of Cal. poetry — I & 8 to edit it, he to attend to the business end.

22

May 31

awful hot.
Entertainment at Lum with Ora Babe.

April TUESDAY 7 1908

April WEDNESDAY 8 1908

1912 June 1

Or I went to the Turners, when I spoke of "Sire de Malétroit's Door" & how I once wanted to dramatize it, but found someone else had done it. Asked Mrs. T. if she'd write a one-act play for the Sun. She couldn't, she said, but Hilliard had a one-act play — so went over to Hilliard's — and he said he'd only written one play in his life — a dramatization of Stevenson — the Sire de Maletroit's Door ! ! ! ! ! ! ! !
Exactly what I want in every way. Only 3 characters, medieval, etc.
I hope he's done a good piece of work, tho it would be hard to fail with that story to begin with.
First call was made on the Hilliard-Mason outfit, and it was an interesting one.

April FRIDAY 10 1908

June 2

Outdoor supper at Turners. We sent Babe down ahead, & she returned presently, having wounded the Turner baby in the eye with a pine cone. S. Opal wouldn't let her go down again, but took her up to the Hollises. I went alone, and we had a fairly good time, playing games, & eating and talking. Both Turners, both Masons, both Hilliards, George, Jonathon & Stella, myself & the children. After supper we talked over a new theater society & Mason, Hilliard, Jonathon & Turner are to draw up plans for its organization.

8

Saw rehearsal of "Elsie" while waiting for Hilliard, & then went with him to try & persuade Bechdolt to play the Duc de Guadaloupe.

April SUNDAY 12 1908

June 9

Musical bake at Sterling's, to continue work of new organization. Holland & wife, Austin & wife, Turner & wife, Keen & wife, Jonathan & Stella (& the children). After eating & quoting, we began to talk. Jonathan, last Sunday so eager to plunge into the work, & selected as one of the Committee to draw up plans, coldly announced that the time was not ripe, & that she would not join any society till after "The Toad" production! Mason read his excellent notes, then Turner, afraid of being in a small and artistic crowd & sort of the big splurge, proposed trying to get control of the Fine Art Society. George told him that if Devendorf had paid him a dollar a minute he couldn't have spoken more to the Company's favor, & left the room. Pretty soon he called me out to the cabin, & said he was going to S. F. with morning, & wants

April TUESDAY 14 1908

9

To the Turners to move out.
The evening broke up early after that.

June 15

Just as I was putting the final touches on my preparations for a trip down the coast with George Turner, a telegram came from Mr Mrs Ed, and I had to abandon the trip.

We called on the Hillsides Masons in their new house for the first time.

12

Coopers to luncheon
I went to Nana Fortis in the evening.

13

Woked six hours on a poem, and accomplished nothing. I might as well try to play the violin and saw wood at the same time as try to write poetry after Opal's diabolic tones to the baby and her cold and bitter tones to me have sounded at intervals from 7 to 9. She went to bed early, and in the wonderful quiet of midnight I did more than in 3 whole days preceding. But it plays ducks & drakes with my nerves to burn my soul instead of sleeping.

May THURSDAY 14 1908

August 14

All the Untermanns spent the afternoon, & had supper; and helped Opal make a great b'day cake for Mrs Foster.

15

Mama Foster's 70th b'day. Surprise party. Ds cake looked gorgeous. Sang "O Peny dear". Mrs. Williams thinks we'd better organize the new Society in 2 or 3 weeks. She doesn't know that if she hadn't waked us, we'd have organized soon without their clique.

Babe ran away again to George Cannons.

28

Began work again, interrupted Aug 20th by my being sick, and continued break by P. S. Theater plans — now given up from lack of intelligent and honest support. The day has passed when I sacrifice my own work to carry out plans that help everyone but my own family. Mrs. Hilliard & Mrs Nelson called - for the first time, really, (and this time to return kitchen things we lent them)

28

Just read (in Drama for Feb) Percy's account of his father's plans for the Spectatorium. It is known that it should be Columbus he was going to use for his central character. When I talked with Prof Gray last summer of my projected "Columbus" for the Forest Theater in 1915 — and when, disgusted with the Forest Theater situation, in April, I thought of the Exposition itself for the production of my Columbus — I little knew that Slosson Mackaye had bent all his powers to the spectatorium "The World-Finder" — and failed dismally. Of course, his failure was in the Spectatorium itself. Had he merely written a big drama for production (as my plan is) he might well have succeeded. Still, he worked in his best line, and it's better to fail in that than to succeed in a line not one's best — tho that may be the best for another — for me.

May THURSDAY 21 1908

May FRIDAY 22 1908

August 29

Mrs Mackay called.
Gout, hark 9?

May SUNDAY 24 1908

Overworked a little in the morning, digging?
Anyhow, as I was sitting to warm my feet about 6 o'clock, I suddenly began to sweat all over, and all my strength left me. I could scarcely hold up my book. About 9 it rained – a sudden, scorching blast, with queer wind. Doubtless the coming change of weather, the garden work, and other things combined to give me the sudden weakness.

3

Rained, [illegible] during the night – very early for rain to begin.
Still out of sorts.
Foster's, etc.

To Georges, & with him & Mason's. At 8:30 we all went up & got the returns — some of them — and for me & win my bet. Benj Newberry told Mrs Wright he's "done working for Cannel."

12

— at 3 in the morning labor pains began; after an hour of them, she thought she'd be better if fires were made & lamps lighted; this done I went down to the stable and phoned for Dr. Lane, who came about 7. No nurse could be got, so I acted the part. George came up about 8 and cut a lot of kindling. Opal had rather severe pains, (intermittent, of course) till about 10, when they became really hard to bear, and at 11 the baby came, just as I put on the potatoes to boil. A homely tyke, that makes a noise like a flock of geese passing over.

12

Mrs Pollard took care of Constance all day.

A fine after the "reduction". Miss Lichtenthaler engaged, for lack of a better.

November 13.

Untermann's, Foster's, Wingate, Turner's.
Monterey to get bed and other things
long list, & got every thing on it.
Most unusual.
Met Pryor, who wants the Grove
Theater started as soon as possible
asked for any preliminary expenses now, and I said no. He told me to come to lunch with G & anyone else I wanted to bring, at the Lodge tomorrow.
Met G & Wilson & Helen in Monterey.
Brought 2 sacks of oysters, 3 of which she ate, & the other G & I shucked not looking them to keep till tomorrow.
Mrs. Untermann & Marian, Mrs. Turner & G came up.
Miss Sichtenthaler and the chop.
"It doesn't matter what I eat" — so she got more.
Wrote brief notes to Ina, Sea Gull,
Connie, & the Coopers.

June MONDAY 22 1908

June TUESDAY 23 1908

November 14.

Mrs Williams came up, & "Cousin Nelly" brought a little bed shelf. Miss L's health won't allow her to go on (that's why she accepted the case — asked for it, even?), so we finally got a real nurse, who comes tomorrow.

Constance worse. Vomited before breakfast; but I simply gave up the day to her care, & thought she's better. Dear little daughter. "Goosie" for the new arrival. Fresh figs!

Phoned Ryan luncheon & she postponed till Constance is all right.

15

Miss Wright came. Good nurse.

16

Cot blanket from Mrs Sterling. George went to Oakland on early train $500 from sale of acres & block.

June THURSDAY 25 1908

Tried to do a little of my own work: got 40 minutes typing done, & had to quit. Morning till night — cook, wash clothes, dress & undress C, feed C & ① & Nurse, errands, fires, go after water, iron clothes, clean tubs and things, make beds, etc. etc.

November 18.

C's cold better.

19

Turners.
Bought Johns gun for $15 ☐

20

Sick (tonsilitis & cold, due to overwork, long hours, nervous strain and contagion — everyone I meet breathes boldly in my face (— damn them!) and the epidemic cold has got me at last.

21

Still sick

22

Forest fire in 80-acre tract, started by Mike Williams & Back-fired at the fire-line; and so ran no risk of its crossing to the F.T., our house (with O not out of bed) and all the pine trees in "Old Camp".
Mason & I watched the smoldering fires

He smiled a grim smile, & said: "Good joke in the end, wasn't it?"
"You'll not find it a very joke, Mr. Powers," I said.

June MONDAY 29 1908

till one a.m (when Mike W. & Hilliard went on the petrol. No mind, however, so it was quite safe.
Hilliard asked (as requested by Devendorf) if I would put on Montezuma like yest year — with any produce I smoked. I said no. Damn scoundrel, Devendorf.

23

Turner's; Dr. Lane's; Phil & Wilson to play golf. Grace handed me a yesterdays Sel, which contained a 2 column article dealing the P.O. plan! Wilson asked what it meant, & I told him. Play golf - first game in my life. Good game, too.
Stopped at Hebry Parkes, & learned from Stella Vincent that they'd have nothing to do with the P.S. theatre.
Dinner at Nanna Foster's. She's with us in the new theatre.
Winthrop Gates, home, & bed - worse in my cold.
/w Ernest Powers xx

June TUESDAY 30 1908

July WEDNESDAY 1 1908

24

Worst cold & I ever had. Very, very miserable, & my head burns & hurts. Talked with Heald of new theatre. Guess will come in, all right. Asked when Desmond told him I could put on Montezuma, & he said 6 weeks ago — so it had nothing to do with the call at all. Foster & Mrs Allen came up.

25

Had to go to Dr Long about my cold, it's so beastly. I haven't been so sick since my appendicitis year!

26

Still very sick & barely able to do the cooking — and I'm a fool to do that. Ought to let everything go to hell till I'm well again.

28

Nurse left for another confinement at 5:30 a.m.

July THURSDAY 2 1908

July FRIDAY 3 1908

1912 December 3

4

Turners', Foster's, Dr Lane's.
Mason asked for details of B.B. offer to show
Devendorf in hope of ~~showing~~ equally good terms from CDC's for the Forest Theater.

5

Unquestionably better in my cold.
Called meeting of Society to organize. Only
Mason came. We went over the Constitution
Old drawers, had supper, & quit.

6

Goodbye to Mrs. Foster & the Untermanns. Both leave tomorrow
George returned & came
Called a moment on the Hayes.

July SUNDAY 5 1908

Mason & Mrs. Hayes to active membership, making 10 in all.
Turner was absent; Mason a brick;
George (as always) restless as the devil.
Committee of 3 to make final arrangements with Pryor (Mason, Sterling, Turner).
Strange how hard it is to get this thing started.

July TUESDAY 7 1908

17

I went out (to the Masons, etc) for the first time since Louise was born.
Got hold of Pryor at last, and made appointment to look over theater ground & plans tomorrow.

July THURSDAY 9 1908

December 18.

Sterling, Mason & I (the Prgm. committee) met Pryor at the style and were taken over to the theater site, where we chose the location for the stage, & after that went over the agreement to be made between the P. O. & our Society. Powers has been to the P. O. directors and made an awful fuss, and the whole thing may fall through. ! ? !

21

Mrs Turner & Jeanette to supper.
Meeting of C. D. S.: Enlarged to 16 members — (2 Herons, 2 Turners, 2 masons, Sterling, Fonda, Jordan Hoffer, Smith, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Rendtorff, Mrs. Foster, Helen Parkes, Cooper)
Adopted my constitution, except adding "if possible" to the rule for producing at least one original play each year.
Elected just the officers I desired;
Sterling, Pres; Mason, V.P. & Mrs. Foster, Treas;
Helen Parkes, Sec-Librarian.
Read my by-laws, which were turned over to committee to digest.
Helen Parkes suggested choosing Montezuma

without having a competition. I refused. And Mason went further, & said he thought it would be inadvisable to put on Monte all this (next year) opening! I demanded that Monte be judged on its merits, & by God it won't — if "policy" is to dictate the choice of plays, I'll quit. Yet Mason was perfectly sincere and frank, & wishes only the good of the Society. His suggestion to make Starling president, after he himself was nominated, was a generous thing. Naturally I declined it myself, when I was the first one nominated. It was proper I should be the first named, & that I should refuse. There's more decency in this Society than in the other!

I gave 30 books to the Socity's library for a rest—gg.

July SUNDAY 12 1908

July MONDAY 13 1908

28

Still very cold. One day this week it was 34 degrees at 8 a. m.

30

Jake Williams says Van Myck Brooks told him that Holme had been down to Poe Grove and looked at the site for the new theatre. What t'hell!

31

Mason & I met Pryor on the Drive, & went to P. Grove to see Shepherd. Discussed the theater, which was settled & now is merely a likely thing! — or else there's some crooked work behind their side of it. Mason asked point blank about Holme, & Pryor & Shepherd both denied any dealings with him, but Pryor admitted Holme had been down to see the site.

Queer pain in left heel - rheumatism?

Hard hunts continually.

Went down to Helen Parker's & bought Opal home.

Mary Austin came to Carmel.

3

Hard hunts too much to let me work properly. Spent several hours exploring the forest for a small theater site. Found one. Read "Negore the Coward" at Pine Inn

Mason thought, I'm sure, that I was responsible for Mike & Peggy not being invited to hear Mary at J's.

Mike very uppish.

Talked with Bechdolt & Kleinsmith & Parkes at their house till 1:30.

A "love-feast" has been arranged by MacDougal, and we're to go as individuals (since we "have no society"!) and everything will be lovely!

9

At Jonathan's, discussing the dramatic situation, when Mary appeared. We talked. I told her of the Midas business (Devendorf, Hand, Holden-guarnet, etc), of Newberry's "We don't want any failures", and much beside. God, she was mad. She ended by writing to Shepard to see if the P. S. theater couldn't go through after all.

10

George, Mason, Hilliard & I walked out to the P. S. land to look for a place to get wood from.
G. had a long talk with Mary. He told her everything I'd told her & was true, as he'd never known me to lie. Mary says I'm selfish, wanting Montezuma to go on and play the lead myself. (!)

August MONDAY 10 1908

Hilliard, Mason, George & I hauled wood all day.

September MONDAY 7 1908

March 29

Met Mary at the P. O., & walked home with her, & returned the 2 half dollars. She said she'd buy Constance a dress. I said that was something I couldn't prevent.

Coopers', who weren't at home. Left them some rounded abalone.

Went over the by-laws, adopting them provisionally.

Elected 2nd play Committee - Heron, Parkes, Foster.

Dr's, and had it out with Dr Lane about the F. T. business. Her stand was not (as I thought it) that we ought not to give Devendorf the advantage of our work in the F. T. (which I cannot could not be avoided, whether we worked in the F. T. or our own theatre) but that Devendorf would let us have the F. T. this year, when he was helpless in a hole, & turn us down mercilessly next year when the situation had improved.

Jonathan's & had an argument about
Key work in the D.S.
I told her from now on I would do no more than anyone else, and see how the Society fared & I hope it will go all right, and prove me wrong.
At any rate, as the point is reached
(as once in the F.T.S.) where success is almost assured. I've written the Constitution, by-laws, etc. worked up the membership, kept the active members attending meetings, secured the theatre site, & stocked the library with my own books — so it ought to succeed even tho I withdraw my shoulder from pushing it.
I'm still on 5 committees — Land,
Library, Second Play, Membership &
By-Laws, and of course don't intend to shirk anything I've begun. But the last 2 will be discharged at the next meeting, the first two as yet no work to do, and the Library has no funds to use. I shall attend all meetings, speaking when called upon, voting on all questions, shall do 1/3 of the work on the 2nd play com., ~~and~~ act any part assigned me (except boys, fools, and empty parts) and produce if selected for the job (paid for the last). This seems like a lot, but its nothing compared to what I have done, and is only what each of the really active members is pledged to.

Afternoon (and dinner) at Cowpers'.

September THURSDAY 17 1908

April 9

Saw Cooper at the Dev. Co.'s office, cussed him, & was called into the back office (with Cooper) by Devendorf, MacDougal & Beardsley.
They offered the F. F. for this year. I told them we'd take it for 3 or none. They agreed.
Special meeting at Mrs. Fosters, and Cooper, Parker & I were chosen to confer with MacDougal. We did, & our deliberation. Continued session of meeting after that, & talked about Baker. &
Montezuma. Cooper & Foster against Montezuma. Sterling & Parker for it.
(All against it' against it for my own good.)
Told Mrs. Foster it was hard on me character, as no parts for me in either Mid. Summer Nt Dream or Cesar Baker. She was all cut up.

10

Told J the same. She was mad, but saw the sense of it.
Saw Mrs Foster again. She's leaving.
Also Coopers (goodbye) & Dos (for Lunch) 10

Mrs. Foster elected chairman of Joint Committee
Hess elected secretary

September TUESDAY 22 1908

September WEDNESDAY 23 1908

12

I showed herself true to her old colors. ~~Last~~ I thought she'd get over her balky tricks, but she did a real old "Land of Heart's Desire" stunt, & came out flat against me for Montezuma! Said Beckett ought to play it. She asked if I'd stand for it, & I said I'd abide by the decision of the casting committee. So it all depends on Mrs. Foster. George will vote for me, J. for Beckett, & Mrs. F. will decide it, as Mason's absent & I shan't vote where my own part is in question.

If, however, they decide that I am not to play Montezuma, I shall resign from active membership. I cannot remain an active member & refuse to play in Midsumme Nt's Dream, so I must get out altogether. I can't afford to give any more time to the Society if I am to be given only comedy, juvenile, fairy parts, etc.

God save me from my friends!
(But George was a brick)

September THURSDAY 24 1908

Opal disgusted with the whole thing. Says she always was so. Doesn't want to start, such. Wants to leave around for a while.

September FRIDAY 25 1908

Opal & took Lama home (& got smoke on the way from Mrs Hilliard, who had kept him for us).
Bed at 12:30. asleep at 2.
Constance stayed at the Hollands' all night.

13

Mrs. Hollands & the 2 children to a Southern breakfast.
Went down to George's in the afternoon, & he handed me two notes he'd received (as Pres.
of our Society) — the resignations of Helen Parkes & Mrs. Foster!
I went to Helen Parkes, but she wasn't in.
Mrs. Foster — & had a long talk, but she's done with the Society. George says the psychology of an old woman is a queer thing.
I showed Mrs. Foster the resignation
I'd written for myself this morning and she was sure I ought not to resign, as the Society would fall to pieces if I did! O funny funny world & funny people!

September SATURDAY 26 1908

Bachdolt rages against Montezuma!
(Remember him!)

September SUNDAY 27 1908

April 14

Long talk with Laura Cotton, who begged me not to resign.
Saw Mrs. Foster again.

15

Worn out, & numbed by the things that have happened.
Letter from Helen Parkes explaining her resignation (Strange time for my friends to decide they don't care for the theater!)

16

Whole long letter to the Times about Hall.

September TUESDAY 29 1908

The 4 trustees whom MacDougal said would sign (with Young) the lease of the F. T. to our society refuse definitely to give us the theater for more than one year at a time.
George went to S. F. with Cassie.

22

Wrote to Cooper all about it.
a answer (very sarcastic) to Trustees, but of course won't send it.
Talked with the Dro, Devendorf & many.
George returned. Cassie stays in Oakland.
Devendorf wants me to compromise, & take theater for 2 years!

25

Summer? Warm weather, flies, fog.

September WEDNESDAY 30 1908

Elected Secretary - Chairman to take place of Helen Parkes. Hate to do it, but there's no one else. It's only till July, tho.

October THURSDAY 1 1908

April 26

Reg. meeting of C. D. S. at our house. Stebbing, Mason, Cotton, Heron, Heron (& Mrs Cotton) (The Cottons had supper with us first.) Unanimously decided to drop F. T. proposition, time on request for 3 years was refused. I read The Spy & part of Scaramouch in Naxos

27

Went to Mass at the Mission. Never again. It's not even interesting. O Mr. Mason, how can you be so duped? Tired all day.

28

George went to L. F. & wrote resignation to be handed in at the annual election in July. Musselwhite offers us Prince Lee & backing — generosity unbounded! O hell!

October SATURDAY 3 1908

April 30

Mrs. Wingate came up, & said she didn't care to do much, as there were going to be plenty of plays this summer. — Rumpelstiltskin, Cinderella, & play of Marguerite's & a fantasy.

Pryor came over & showed a telegram from Sheppard saying we could the Y.W.C.A. theatre at Ocean Beach by July 4th!

He took me (& O & Smoke) & Mason over to the new site. Been accomodations for trees & stage, but perfect auditorium. We weren't encouraging.

Read Gold to Hudson in the evening. He had suffered with us.

October SUNDAY 4 1908

May 2

Mason went over last of accts of Gold with me, making several good music suggestions

October MONDAY 5 1908

1913 May 1

Dinner at Mrs Hilliards.
Letter from G. enclosing one from Havens-who says ranch worth $2000!!?!!! Where is the error?
Wm Greer Harrison spent half an hour trying to get me to play Robin Hood. He said Irving the star role in Runnymede; he said I was a great actor ——— but I was poor against even that.
Smoke (a Robin goodfellow, he's such a good little fellow) has more cold.

3

Mary Austin came up — to persuade me to play in Runnymede, I think; but she changed her mind.
Meeting of CSDS. at Laura Cottons
No quorum.
Read The First Poet.

4

Interesting talk with Wanda Lyons.
Her point of view (possibly consciously false) is worth having heard.

October WEDNESDAY 7 1908

Skipped by accident.

October FRIDAY 9 1908

May 8

At 2 o'clock this morning I threw up my dinner of last night — chipped beef in white sauce, graham toast & tea. Weak & miserable all day. Ate a poached on toast at noon.

9

Still weak & sick.
Walked on the beach, felt better; called on the Drs, had luncheon there; called on Mrs. Foster; walked on the beach some more, with Jimmy Hopper & his sister in law.
Mrs Foster gave Skunks a shower.

10

Not strong yet, but well enough to wash clothes. Stopped at Lana Cottons for rose leaves for C to make "perfume" with.

11

Back to work again, with only 3 days lost for nothing!

October SUNDAY 11 1908

May 13

Constance began "dramatic work" (!) with Grande Lyons (all Miss Williams' school went).

14

Constance had supper (milk, grapenuts, cream) at the Hilliards.

15

Constance complained of headache at luncheon. Went to her Lyons lesson at 3, played till 5:30, came home with headache still there, very cold hands & feet and feverish. Put her to bed. Stalked with her a while, left her to wash my face, and @ went in and found her unconscious, with glazed eyes. Ran for the stable, & sent down a wire for Dr Lane. In a few minutes Dr Lane & Dr Smiley were here. They said it was a convulsion. Queer with Orin @ surprised it. Hot bath, enema, medicine. Miss Cobb came & nursed her all night. Good, Hopper & Mrs Hilliard very kind & solicitous about her. Temp 103:6 highest.

October MONDAY 12 1908

28

Called on the Doctors, Mrs. Foster & Hoffmers.

30

George & Carrie returned. They & Jenning & Hamilton & Carrie's sister called, & spent an hour at the little theatre where the Mexicans were cutting wood.
Learned that Jack has been sore at me for 3 years because (on his last visit to Calmel) I said, sarcastically, to him: "My, but you have a logical mind!"

October SATURDAY 17 1908

31

Very much discouraged. The Jack affair has upset me! Coming on top of the "Gold" business, our long run of poverty, non-success in everything, for health, Constance's convulsion, etc etc, it's about my limit.

Resolution:

Never make witty, sarcastic, moral, funny, smart, gay remarks to anybody under any circumstances.

Never speak ill of anyone, even Perry Newberry, nor slightingly of his cake.

Never speak of myself or my work.

Never talk "theater".

Don't talk at all. It costs too much.

on a play!
(3) change from Amid & The Awakening

November THURSDAY 5 1908

November FRIDAY 6 1908

I killed the first, many herself the second, but the 3rd was decided by a vote of 10 to 3 — the debate took half an hour against it. I read all the documents in connection with the F.T. (& ended by saying that I would, however, abide by the decision of the majority) & was told that I would lose nothing by my generous attitude (but I heard the same thing in 1911 & 1912!)
When asked directly what reasons there were against putting the F.T. (aside from the fact that it was a complete reversal of our policy) I said: It seems queer to unanimously reject the F.T. when it meant the production of Montezuma & then accept it when it meant the production of somebody else's play!
Miss Foster was very sharp, the Bros. angry, & George said he'd have (who wasn't there)
